Aberdeen, Bus Station - is situated on Guild Street, directly across from the main Aberdeen Railway Station and close to all shopping and leisure facilities.

Things to do in Aberdeen

Explore the city

Aberdeen is known as the "Granite City" and owes its distinctive appearance to the locally quarried and largely exported building material. Built on the mouth of two major Scottish rivers the Dee and Don, it has a wide range of entertainment and leisure facilities, a vibrant art scene and bustling shopping malls.

His Majesty's Theatre

There are more than 300 performances a year at His Majesty's, offering everything from ballet, opera and drama to contemporary dance, light entertainment and musicals. For show information click here.

Aberdeen Maritime Museum

Situated on the historic Shiprow and incorporating Provost Ross's House - built in 1593 - Aberdeen Maritime Museum tells the story of the city's long relationship with the Sea. For more information click here.
